

Promoting the highest quality of rehabilitation for people with stroke

Wednesday 13th June 2018

Dalhousie Building, University of Dundee

Delivering the Dose: strategies for effective stroke rehabilitation

Programme

09.30	Registration and Coffee Exhibition and Poster Viewing
10.00	Opening address and Housekeeping SSAHPF Chair
10.10	Symposium 1: Implementing evidence into practice: how are we doing? Chair: TBC
10.10	What factors influence the frequency and intensity of therapy provision in stroke units? Findings for the ReACT study. Dr. David Clarke, University of Leeds
10.35	Delivering intensive upper limb rehabilitation: Does it work, and what is it? Fran Brander and Kate Kelly, University College London NHS Foundation Trust
11.05	Panel discussion: All symposium speakers
11.15	Comfort Break
11.25	Free Paper session 1 (each 15 minutes with 5 minutes for questions) Chair: TBC
11.25	1.
11.45	2
12.05	3.
12.25	SSAHPF Annual General Meeting SSAHPF Chair
12.25 – 13.40	Lunch, exhibition & poster viewing
13.40 –	Symposium 2: Supporting intensive (self) management in the community Chair: TBC
13.40	Aphasia: Optimising therapy through collaboration. Sheena Borthwick, NHS Lothian
	The Stroke Ness initiative Paula Young, NHS Highland
14.05	Panel discussion: All symposium speakers
14.30

14.40	Free paper session (each 10 minutes with 5 minutes for questions) Chair: TBC
14.40	1.
14.55	2.
15.10	Coffee / tea / exhibition and poster viewing
15.40	Updates (each 10 minutes with 5 minutes for questions) Chair: TBC
15.40	Scottish Stroke Improvement Update: Mrs. Katrina Brennan MBE
15.55	Chest Heart Stroke Scotland Update: Ms. Barbara Dalgetty
16.10	Moving on: next steps for the SSAHPF: Dr. Jacqui Morris, SSAHPF Chair
16.25	Poster prize giving and closing remarks Dr. Jacqui Morris, SSAHPF Chair
16.30	Close